

Glen LeBlanc

Senior Vice President Finance, Bell Canada

Glen LeBlanc is currently Senior Vice President Finance, Bell Canada and will assume the role of Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of BCE & Bell Canada in July 2015.

Previously, Glen was Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of Bell Aliant Inc. since July 2006. He was responsible for overseeing all aspects of financial management within Bell Aliant's operations.

Mr. LeBlanc also served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Aliant – Bell Aliant's predecessor company - since September 2005. Glen joined Aliant in 1993, holding a number of senior management positions with increasing levels of responsibility.

Mr. LeBlanc is Vice – Chair of the Board of Directors of Certified Management Accountants of Nova Scotia and played an active role (locally and nationally) in the merger and unification of the Accountants Profession in Canada. He also chairs the Creating Champions campaign for Cape Breton University. He previously sat on the Boards of the Greater Halifax Partnership, Atlantic Provinces Economic Council, Cape Breton University and Feed Nova Scotia.

In 2005, Mr. LeBlanc was named one of Canada's Top 40 Under 40™ based on his achievements in the areas of vision and leadership; innovation and achievement; impact; community involvement and contribution; and contribution to Aliant's growth strategy. He received UNICEF's Champion for Children Award in 2004 for outstanding community contribution and has served as the chair for the Chefs for UNICEF committee.

A native of Sydney, Nova Scotia, he completed his Bachelor of Commerce in 1989 at St. Mary's University in Halifax and received his Certified Management Accountant (CMA) designation in 1994. In November 2007, he received his FCMA designation from the society of Certified Management Accountants of Nova Scotia.

Mr. LeBlanc enjoys staying active by playing and coaching hockey on a regular basis. He also enjoys golfing and traveling with his wife Julie and their children Madison and Brett.